FROM THE EAST

What is a Blue Lodge?

There can be a number of different answers to that question.

Most define it as the Home Lodge in which you were raised. I have a different feeling regarding that. It is my home away from home. I realize that may sound like a cliché, but when you have spent as much time down at the Lodge as I have the past five years, I think you can understand.

Define Home. That is where I feel comfortable and where my friends and brothers are. Do you feel at home when you come to Lodge? You should. If not, I believe we are doing something wrong and need to fix it.

Define Lodge. That is the place where we come to meet our brothers and friends; to pass on that Masonic knowledge which we have gained to our new brothers.

Well, enough of that. Lets all try to attend the Grand Master's Appreciation Dinner at MMT on March 13th at 5PM. I'd like to see Vegas 32 well represented.

By the way: Real friends are those who, when you've made a fool of yourself, don't feel that you've done a permanent job.

Fraternally,

Stan

Worshipful Master

FROM THE WEST

This month's Trestleboard article had me stumped — until I started to think about all the honors I've received over the years and just how important they were in my life. Then it suddenly occurred to me that maybe those honors were not of such great importance after all. That possibly I had been presented with far more valuable honors.

I started counting the number of friends I've made within our fraternity throughout the years and how very important they are in my life. As a result of our Masonic teachings, I have learned how satisfying a solid religious belief can be, not only to one's self, but also to one's family.

And finally, the satisfaction of participating in and contributing to your neighborhood, your community, and your country. These are but a few of the many honors I have received, and they are far and above more rewarding than all the rest my "honors."

Just a reminder to all Brethren: if you know of any Brother who is sick or otherwise incapacitated, please notify me so I can arrange for a visitation. Thanks...!

Fraternally,

Mike

Senior Warden

FROM THE SOUTH

Well, we had a great family dinner in January. It was great to see all the brothers, their families, friends and significant others enjoying their meals and refreshments. I am sure our enjoyment will continue throughout the year and we will have lots of fun.

I personally would like to thank everyone who helped me prepare this wonderful evening, as well as the other refreshments. Especially those who have no obligation to do this. These individuals are showing us the true meaning of our fraternity, and when I see this, I feel more connected to our great organization.

More and more I want to serve with the best of my ability. Because I know I am not the only one who feels this way, I am confident I will have all the help I need. Isn't this wonderful? Also, to see our brethren and their families having such a wonderful time makes my day.

Thank you all for allowing me to experience this. I'm looking forward to seeing more people celebrate and enjoy our family dinners.

Fraternally,

Birant

Junior Warden

FROM THE SECRETARY

Again, I've been trying to keep the records updated.

If you have turned in your 3rd Degree proficiency — and have not yet received a card — please stop by the office so I may issue one to you.

Also, I have requested several times from the members that if you are going to be away from your home for vacation, please put a temporary change of address in with the Post Office. I have received numerous Trestleboards that were returned to the Lodge with "Temporarily Away" stamped on them. This costs the Lodge money. So, when I receive such returns in the future, you will be taken off the mailing list until you notify the office that you have returned home. Hope to see you at a meeting!

Fraternally,

Mark

Secretary

If I have ever made any valuable discoveries, it has been due more to patient attention, than to any other talent.
